An ISO 9001:2008 Registered Company

Han-Tek is a registered company with the International Organization for Standards (ISO), a global network that identifies what international standards are required by business, government and society, and develops them in partnership with the sectors that will put them to use. ISO standards specify the requirements for state-of-the-art products, services, processes, materials and systems, and for good conformity assessment, managerial and organizational practice.

Becoming an ISO 9001:2008 registered company requires us to comply with the most rigorous worldwide requirements for consistent product quality and superb business practices in any industry. Han-Tek is the only supplier in the material handling industry to achieve ISO 9001:2008 registration.

When you choose Han-Tek, you choose a company with exemplary standards for quality, reliability and service, as defined by the most respected compliance organization in the world.
